

Adventure Kit

for "The Pebble Who Wanted to Roll"

A quiet invitation to wonder — for little ones and their grown-ups

Colour the pebble, the river, and the journey — and imagine what it feels like to be carried by the flow

River Walk Activity

- ➡ Next time you are near a river or stream, find a smooth pebble. Hold it in your hand. What does it feel like? Where do you think it came from? Draw it or write a few words about your pebble.

A Question to Wonder About

- If you were a pebble, where would you want the river to take you?
 - Write or draw your answer below

I am carried by the flow

Name: _____

Date: _____

Even when you are still, you are part of a journey.

For Grown-ups

- This Adventure Kit is a quiet invitation to notice movement — not as rushing, but as being carried. You do not need a river to do these activities. A walk, a stream, or even a small bowl of water can hold a pebble and a moment of wonder. Let the child lead, and let the pebble teach us that even stillness is part of the flow.
-  Safety Note: Always supervise children near water, even shallow streams. Avoid fast-flowing rivers or deep water. A small container of water or a dry riverbed is just as magical for this activity — and much safer.
